

Caribbean Philosophical Association Summer School

July 22-29, 2018

The University of Memphis
Memphis,
Tennessee

Featuring seminars and discussion with CPA leadership and prize winners:

Jeremy Glick, “Hegelian Resonances/African Diasporic Literary Study” and “Scale and Geography in The Chosen Place, the Time People.”

Eduardo Mendieta, “Towards a Decolonial Imaginary” and “The Castoff Children of Cain”

Hortense Spillers, “Time’s Work:

Questions for Psychoanalysis and Race” (two seminars)

Lewis R. Gordon and Paget Henry, “Shifting the Geography of Reason”

Jane Anna Gordon and Michael Monahan, “Creolizing Theory”

Plus, an excursion to the Memphis Civil Rights Museum!

Visit: www.caribphil.org/ssa17.html for more information.

Applications due February 15th, 2018

Questions? Email mike.monahan@memphis.edu